

I strongly oppose the effort by the Consumer Bankers Association to weaken Indiana's strong telephone privacy law (02-278). Allowing the vague "established business relationship" exemption to allow direct unsolicited telemarketing to Indiana consumers is wrong. We have a right to be secure in our homes without annoying unpaid assaults on our limited family time. The Indiana law is good as-is, please do allow this petition.